A-Z Universities in the United States
by Alphabetical Order

Introduction

Which and how many Universities are located in the United States? uniRank tries to answer this question by publishing a comprehensive alphabetical list of 1790 US higher-education institutions meeting the following uniRank selection criteria:

- being chartered, licensed or accredited by the appropriate US higher education-related organization
- offering at least four-year undergraduate degrees (bachelor degrees) or postgraduate degrees (master or doctoral degrees)
- delivering courses predominantly in a traditional, face-to-face, non-distance education format

Our aim is to provide a comprehensive listing, sorted by alphabetical order, of all US Universities, Colleges and other higher-education institutions.

Alumni Mentor Program

Christendom College Alumni Mentors

Christendom alumni are employed in a myriad of fields. Some have gone on to graduate school (about 18%) while others have gone directly into the workplace. Additionally, 98% of the Class of 2019 (96% Class of 2018) were employed or in grad school within 6 months of graduation.

In this booklet you will find alumni in varied fields, all of whom have agreed to communicate with current and prospective students and their families about how they transitioned from Christendom to their current work field.

Please ask them as many questions as you would like – they are here for YOU!

If you are interested in a field not represented in this booklet, please contact VP for Enrollment Tom McFadden (tom.mcfadden@christendom.edu) or Director of Career Development Kristin Stephens (kristin.stephens@christendom.edu) and they will try and find an alumna/usa in that field.

SUMMARY – THE TRUTH

- You can do anything with a liberal arts degree – ANYTHING!!

- Most jobs do not require specific degrees in order to work in them.

- It’s more about your “soft skills” and ability to be innovative and proactive.

- It’s sometimes more important “who you know” than “what you know.”

- With a Christendom liberal arts degree you will excel beyond your peers.

- Christendom College can help you fulfill your dreams – professional, personal, and spiritual.
