

4.2.b – Board/Administrative Distinction

“The duly elected Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be the sole governing authority of the Corporation” (Bylaws II).

ARTICLE X – CHRISTENDOM COLLEGE

Section A.

1. The College shall be operated and maintained by the Corporation. The Corporation, in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, shall govern the College through the Corporation’s Board of Directors, which shall establish such policies and rules for the operation of the College as it shall deem appropriate and exercise such authority as is provided to it in these Bylaws and the Articles of Incorporation. . . .
2. The Corporation shall be responsible for compliance with all applicable public laws and regulations and for the conformance of the College with the purposes of the Corporation as stated in the Articles of Incorporation.

“The President of the College is an ex officio member of the Board” (Bylaws VI.A.4), and cannot serve as its Chairman. The President serves in an advisory capacity on Board Committees, but is designated by the Board, and is charged with implementing and administering the policies established by the Board by directing the activities of the administration and faculty in conformity with them (Bylaws X.B).

Section B. The President of the College

1. The president of the College shall be designated by the Board of Directors of the Corporation and shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the College. No president shall serve, except on a temporary basis, without a written contract with the Corporation.
2. The president of the College shall implement and administer the Special Orders, Policies, and Rules established by the Board and direct the activities of the administration and faculty of the College in conformity with them.
