

4.2.g – Board self-evaluation

The Board regularly evaluates its responsibilities and expectations, and they are regularly reminded of this obligation.

In March 2022, in its regular quarterly meeting, the Board of Directors of Christendom College voted to review its role and responsibilities on an annual basis. In the same meeting, the Board of Directors agreed to review the Mission and Vision of the College each September.